ITEMS FROM HARBOR FRONT

The arrival of the Hamakua boats either today or tomorrow, is doubtful.

The Keauhou from Koloa reports 53,500 bags of sugar left on the Garden Isle.

The Greenwich time whistle did not sound today on account of trouble with the electric wires.

The Australia sailing this afternoon, will take a full cargo from this port, including 18000 bags of sugar.

The Kauai reports fine weather at Lahaina with the wind from the west. There were 5000 bags of sugar left at Lahaina.

The Kinau sailed for Maui and Hawaii ports at 12 noon today.
This will get her into Hilo at about 5 o'clock in the afternoon instead of at night time as heretofore.

The following steamers are expected in tomorrow morning: Waiwale from Koloa; Kilohaua from Hanalei; Keauhou from Makawili or Waimea and James Makae from Kapa.

It is now a familiar sight to see natives in canoes towing in wreckage found in the vicinity of the Edward O'Brien. They haul this up town and manage to make quite a little money.

The Noeau's purser reports as follows on Hawaii shipping matters: Fine weather at Kau; Iwalani arrived in Honokaa as the
makua Saturday and Sunday night; Kukuhaele stopped grid-ing Thursday, March 16, and will start up again Tuesday, March 21; H A Co, 9000 bags left; P S M, 2000; H S Co, 13,000 and
"Diamond" H, 3136.

GOOD because it shows full, honest value for the price every time.

except your time, to call and see for yourself, and if your TIME is valuable you cannot spend it to a better advantage, or at any place where you will receive better returns than examining our superb

The Manufacturers' Shoe Co.,

SIGN OF THE BIG SHOE,

Fort street.

Telephone Matters.

In about a year's time, Honolulu will have a telephone system, identical with that of San Francisco. It is what is known as the express system. A branch of this has already been inaugurated at Waikiki and in a few months, the work in the city will be commenced. The system will do away with all the calling lines so that "central's" work will be very much simplified.

It is understood that the Telephone Exchange will remain in the same building as at the present time. The room burned out some time ago is to be repaired and the new board will be placed there.

Manna Widemann returns to San Francisco in the Australia this afternoon.
